Rules of presentation Competition

3. The preliminary competition will be held from 4/19 to 5/19. The final competition will be held on 5/30 between 6:00 to 8:00 pm at CS310.
4. Ideally the presentation competition is meant to be a formal but fun experience rather than an intense nervous occasion: hence your presentation should be detailed and enjoyable for the audience.
5. The topic for the presentation is decided by the participants, and can be related to the subject they study.

Participants should register at google link provided on the website.
6. Unbiased judges will give each group the score they deserved.
7. In "Individual competition," the first presentation will commence at 6:10 pm, with each consecutive speaker following thereafter. In "Group competition," the first presentation will commence at 7:10 pm, with each consecutive speaker following thereafter.
8. Visual materials such as PowerPoint Presentations are encouraged. Speakers should display their English speaking skills and their ability to draft interesting and motivational content.
9. Each presentation may last for a maximum of 3 minutes. A reminder bell will ring at 2:50.
10. The speaker at the lectern has the floor. No one should interrupt or interject when others are speaking.
11. The judges will base their decision partly on the material presented, but also on the way in which the material is delivered, focusing on the speaker's ability to communicate effectively in English while presenting an interesting and impressive presentation. Marks will be awarded for: (a) speaking fluency (b) lexical resourcefulness (vocabulary range) (c) correct grammar and (d) pronunciation clarity.
12. There will be two unbiased external judges and their joint decision shall be final.
